Pope Francis has announced that October 2019 will be an Extraordinary Missionary Month and YOU are invited to participate by creating an original song focusing on this month's theme.

Theme: Baptized and Sent: Sharing the Good News and Caring for God’s Creation.

What: Original lyrics and music inspired by the theme and drawing on sources including, but not limited to Pope Francis’s encyclical Laudato si’.

Who: Young Catholics in Grades 1-12

When: Submission Deadline: August 1, 2019

Winner will be announced in the fall 2019, and celebrated during the Extraordinary Missionary Month in October 2019.

Songs will be judged on their originality, youthfulness, and contemporary nature. Winning entries should be catchy, easy-to-sing, and communicate their message through both the words and the melody.

Learn More at: propfaith.net/songcontest/

Full contest guidelines are available on the official entry form online.